

Entertainment of Monday, 21 May 2018

Source: Entamoty.com

Joey B reveals why he sometimes takes 'Trotro'

Joey B was seen in a 'trotro' recently

Recently Ghanaian Rapper Joey B was spotted all soaked in perspiration walking to join a public transport with his bag hanging on the shoulder, he was later seen sitting in a 'trotro' which many people alleged he was broke and for that matter struggling with other passengers in a public transport.

The Sweetie Pie hitmaker has passionately addressed the reason he sometimes takes public transport in an exclusive interview on ENTAMOTY live show on Class FM with Barimah Amoaning Samuel.

He stated that he being in the limelight doesn't mean he can't join a public queue for 'trotro' but on actual fact sitting in trotro shows how humble he is to be able to stoop that low to interact with people of such caliber.

“I was actually shocked when the news came out. My uncle even called me and was like 'Kwesi is everything okay?' I was trying to portray something. I remember at a point in time when things were not all that rosy the days I used to pick trotro. Myself and my sis we were picking trotro to school, now it was a norm; my dad a graduate and a very nice man was picking trotro and that means he was very humble. So I learned from that. Hey I need to teach people how to be humble I CAN NEVER BE BROKE,” Joey B explains.

Joey B further requested all his fans to go get his latest single ‘Nsa’ which has been trending on YouTube.

He also asked all lovers of himself to just look up to nothing but the best of music from his camp.

Watch video below;

WAYO ft. Joey B - Muscatella (Official Video)

Comments:

This article has 10 comment\(s\), give your comment